

FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED AWARDS IN TEACHING SEMESTER RESEARCH PROGRAM FOR U.S. TEACHERS

Overseas research and professional development for K–12 educators.

The Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Semester Program for U.S. Teachers (Fulbright DA) provides an opportunity for outstanding elementary, middle, and high school teachers from the United States to take part in a three- to six-month professional development experience abroad. Teachers will pursue individual inquiry projects, take courses for professional development at a host university, and collaborate with colleagues in the United States and internationally on best educational practices.

How does Fulbright DA improve classrooms, schools, and communities?

Grows educators' professional leadership skills

Expands access to global networks

Research, policy and practice are informed by educators

Promotes mutual understanding

The Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Semester Research Program for U.S. Teachers is a program sponsored by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by IREX.

Participating Locations

Botswana • Brazil • Colombia • Finland • Greece • India • Israel • Mexico • Morocco • Netherlands
New Zealand • Palestinian Territories • Singapore • Taiwan • United Kingdom • Vietnam

Eligibility

- Full time K–12 teaching position, including classroom teachers, guidance counselors, curriculum coordinators, special education coordinators, media specialists, librarians, and gifted and talented coordinators and others who spend at least half of their time interacting with students
- Five years of full-time teaching experience in the U.S., a U.S. territory or school associated with DODEA
- Be a U.S. citizen, and reside in a U.S. state, territory or campus associated with DODEA
- Master's degree or enrolled in a master's degree program
- Demonstrated record of professional development activities and leadership
- Other requirements as indicated in the policies of the Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board and on the program website (<http://bit.ly/FFSBPolicies> and <http://bit.ly/Chapter800>)

TO LEARN MORE, VISIT:

Website: www.irex.org/fulbright-da

Email: FulbrightDA@irex.org

About the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State fosters mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries around the world. ECA strives to achieve this goal through a wide range of international exchanges as authorized by the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, as amended. ECA works in close cooperation with U.S. Embassies and bilateral Fulbright Commissions overseas to promote personal, professional, and institutional ties between private citizens and organizations in the United States and abroad.

About IREX

IREX is a global development and education nonprofit organization whose mission is to build a more just, prosperous, and inclusive world by empowering youth, cultivating leaders, strengthening institutions, and extending access to quality education and opportunity. The U.S. Department of State awarded IREX a grant to implement this program on its behalf.